trees on 650 N., grinded stumps on 325 W. and ditched for the city on Inwood Dr. & Old Lane Dr.

The next item on the agenda was the consideration of a Uniform Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement. Chairman Lienhoop explained that this relates to Technician Supervisor Stacey Gross with the Highway department. She has a graphics business and has been approached by different departments to quote vehicle signs and/or lettering. It is state policy that she fill out the disclosure statement stating that she has this business as well as being an employee of Bartholomew County. Chairman Lienhoop stated that the Commissioners met with Chief Code Enforcement Officer Brian Thompson last week who has selected Gene Weaver to fill the position of County Fire Inspector for his department. The next item on the agenda was the consideration of a Resolution Concerning Bartholomew County Grant Policy & Procedures. County Attorney J. County Auditor Barbara Hackman stated that the most recent audit, completed last week, had several findings, all of which were regarding filing deadlines for said grants. The new requirements will state whether it is a Federal or State grant, who in the department is responsible and other pertinent information. Federal grants require a semi-annual filing that was not being met. The State Board of Accounts and Attorney Tucker have reviewed this resolution. Commissioner Flohr made a motion to adopt the Resolution Concerning Bartholomew County Grant Policy & Procedures. Commissioner Kleinhenz seconded the motion that passed unanimously.

There being no other business, the meeting was adjourned by Chairman Lienhoop at 10:21 a.m. The next Commissioners' meeting will be on Monday, June 10, 2013 at 10:00 a.m. in the Council Chambers.
