INSTRUCTIONS/IMPORTANT INFORMATION

1. Each Defendant must be served properly under Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure 4-4.17 and 86 for the Court to have jurisdiction. If Plaintiff is using a Private Process Server, Plaintiff shall file a Return Notice of Claim with the Court after attempting Service for each Defendant. The Court cannot proceed without proper service.
2. You do not have to have an attorney to file or respond to a Small Claim. Individual human beings and any kind of business entity can either hire an attorney or represent themselves in a Small Claim case regardless of the amount of the claim. Corporate entities, including LLCs or trusts, may be represented by a FULL-TIME EMPLOYEE as explained in paragraph 3. A FULL-TIME EMPLOYEE may also represent sole proprietorships and partnerships.
3. A corporate entity, sole proprietorship, partnership, LLC, LLP, or trust that wishes to designate an employee or trustee to represent it must file a properly executed Certificate of Compliance in each case appointing the person as its representative pursuant to Indiana Small Claim Rule 8(C).
4. A Court may sanction a designated employee or trustee and the entity represented by such designation for failure to comply with these rules or local rules of Court. Sanctions may include assessments of costs or reasonable attorney's fees, the entry of a default judgment, the dismissal of a claim with or without prejudice, fines, and/or incarceration.
5. Plaintiff waives the right to trial by jury by filing a Small Claim. The Defendant may, within ten (10) days following service of the Notice of Claim, demand a trial by jury, in writing, specifying that the demand is made in good faith and supplying the affidavit required by Indiana Code 33-29-2-7. The Defendant must pay the difference in filing fees to the Clerk's Office at the time of the jury request.
6. The Defendant must file any counter claim with the Court in time to be mailed and received by the Plaintiff at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the trial date.
7. A claim must be filed in the county where the Defendant resides or has his/her place of employment, the transaction or occurrence took place, or where the obligation was incurred.
8. Court costs must be paid in advance. The Court may order a Defendant to reimburse the Plaintiff for Court costs.
9. This Court cannot award more than $10,000 in a Small Claims action.
10. All parties and their representatives must complete and file an Appearance form with the Court.
11. Requests to continue the trial by either party must be received by the Court at least two (2) business days before the trial date. Continuances are generally not favored and are not granted by telephone. Requests to continue can be mailed or delivered to Bartholomew Superior Court 2 Small Claims, 234 Washington Street, Columbus, IN 47201. The Court's phone number is (812)379-1620.
12. Bring to trial all documents, photos, etc. that you wish to submit concerning this claim. Written lists of damages with written explanations are very helpful to the Court. The Court will not consider exhibits displayed solely on electronic devices. Printed documents and photos should be of good quality and organized. The Clerk will furnish subpoenas if requested.
13. The Court will conduct a contested trial on the first trial setting, so both parties should be prepared to proceed. Notify the Court at least two (2) business days in advance if the trial will take longer than thirty (30) minutes.
14. Be on time for trial. A claim may be dismissed or judgment may be entered against an absent party.
15. Parties may settle the case before trial, but they are not required to do so. If the case is settled before trial, Plaintiff shall either dismiss the case or file an Agreed Judgment with the Court. Both Plaintiff and Defendant must sign the Agreed Judgment. The Court has Agreed Judgment forms available upon request. Even if a Defendant agrees to a judgment, he/she may appear in Court to establish a method by which the judgment may be paid.
16. An appeal must be initiated within thirty (30) days of the entry of judgment. Appeals are complicated and an attorney should be consulted regarding an appeal.
17. A Small Claims Manual and all Small Claims forms are available at www.bartholomew.in.gov or the Small Claims Office. Small Claims rules can be found at www.in.gov/courts/rules/small_claims. You can find information about cases at www.public.courts.in.gov or www.mycase.in.gov.

INSTRUCTIONS ON FILING A CLAIM FOR POSSESSION OF PROPERTY (EVICTION)

1. When you complete the Claim for Possession of Property form, the Plaintiff must be the owner of the property.
2. A Verification of Ownership form must be completed where you affirm under the penalties for perjury that you are the owner of the property.
3. You must complete the entire Summons for Claim for Possession of Property form, except the case number and court date and time; the Court will do this. You must also include a short and clear statement describing why you are filing an eviction in the summary portion of the Eviction Form.
4. If there is a lease or contract, a copy must be attached. The lease or contract must be between the Plaintiff (property owner) and the Defendant(s).
5. You must complete an Appearance form. The appropriate form must be completed depending on whether you are an individual, sole proprietor, partnership, corporation, LLC, LLP, or other business organization. If you provide an email address on the Appearance Form, the only notice of future Court hearings and Orders you will receive will be through email notification. If you do not use your email address on a regular basis, please do not list it.
 - A. If the Plaintiff (property owner) is a sole proprietor or partnership:
 - i. A designated full-time employee of the business may appear on behalf of the business.
 - ii. A designated full-time employee of the business may only appear without the sole proprietor or a partner of the partnership if accompanied by an attorney.
 - B. If the Plaintiff (property owner) is a corporate entity, limited liability company (LLC), limited liability partnership (LLP), or trust:
 - i. A designated full-time employee of the business, or a Trustee if it is a trust, may appear for the corporation or trust.
6. If a designated full-time employee of the business is appearing on behalf of the Plaintiff (property owner), a Certificate of Compliance form must be completed.
7. If you are requesting Sheriff service on the defendant, you must provide a stamped envelope addressed to the defendant.
8. When the appropriate forms are completed, bring the forms and filing fee to the Small Claims Office prior to 3:30 PM and you will be given a hearing date and time. You will then take the forms to the Bartholomew County Clerk's Office where the Clerk will initiate the claim and receipt the filing fee.
9. The filing fee is $97.00 (service on one (1) defendant by certified mail.)
 - A. There is a $10.00 extra fee for each additional defendant.
 - B. There is also a $28.00 extra fee for the sheriff to serve defendant.
 - C. The Bartholomew County Clerk accepts cash, personal check, money orders, and credit/debit card (there is a 3% charge for paying with a card) as forms of payment for filing fees.
10. The jurisdictional limit in Small Claims is $10,000 for an individual and for a business. If Plaintiff is seeking damages in excess of $10,000, the Claim must be filed on the Plenary Docket.
11. If you believe you will need an interpreter to understand these proceedings, please advise Court staff immediately. The Court will provide a certified interpreter upon the filing of a timely request. If you have any further questions, feel free to contact our office at (812)379-1620.
